INDIAN BANK CELEBRATED 70th INDEPENDENCE DAY &
110th FOUNDATION DAY

70th Independence Day was celebrated at Indian Bank Corporate Office, Royapettah, and at Registered Head Office, 66 Rajaji Salai, Chennai. Shri R Subramania Kumar, Executive Director, Indian Bank hoisted the National Flag. Independence Day 2016 is also the 110th Founding Day of the Bank. A Guard of Honour was presented by the Bank's Guards on this occasion.

In his Independence Day address, Shri R Subramania Kumar recalled the contribution and sacrifices of our Great Leaders in establishing free India based on the ideology of justice and equality. Citing the simile of the Phoenix, he thanked the dedicated efforts of the Staff members to who helped reached the Bank to such glorious heights. Further, he urged every staff member to be receptive and responsive to the customers' needs and emphasized on the need to step out and meet the growing demands and expectations of every shareholder of the Bank. He requested the Indian Bank family to rededicate themselves to growth of our Bank and thus contribute towards Nation building.

He deliberated on the Bank's Corporate Social Responsibility programmes such as Organ Donation and planting of saplings as a give back to the Society.

Col (Retd) AC Cherian, Asst General Manger (Security) Indian Bank welcomed the gathering. General Managers, other Executives and staff members and family participated in the celebrations.
