INDIAN BANK signs MOU with BSNL & MTNL

Indian Bank renewed its relationship with BSNL and MTNL by signing a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with BSNL on 26.04.2021 for another term of 5 years from April, 2021 to March, 2026. BSNL had been the primary leased line service provider for Indian Bank since 2006 onwards for its various branches, offices and ATMs.

Indian Bank would continue to avail leased line services from BSNL & MTNL for its Wide Area Network (WAN) for a further period of 5 years w.e.f 01.04.2021 to 31.03.2026.

Shri Deepak Sarda, General Manager, Information Technology Division, Corporate Office and Shri Ilanthirai V S, General Manager (EB) BSNL signed and exchanged the documents today at Indian Bank, Corporate Office in the presence of Shri K Ramachandran, Executive Director, Indian Bank and Dr. V K Sanjeevi, Chief General Manager, BSNL.

Shri K Ramachandran mentioned that BSNL had provided contemporary leased line circuits/VSATs at majority of its branches /offices for seamless connectivity for data /voice and video conference and requested BSNL to ensure 100% uptime to ensure disruption free banking services.

Dr. V K Sanjeevi stated that it is the endeavour of BSNL to provide state of the art technology at affordable prices even at remote locations to ensure seamless connectivity across India, more so, after amalgamation of Allahabad Bank. Officials of both Indian Bank and BSNL were present during the occasion.
