5. Customers Grievance Redressal policy / Resources

Introduction

In the present scenario of competitive banking, excellence in customer service is the most important tool for sustained business. Customer complaints are part of the business life of any corporate entity. This is more so for banks because banks are service organisations. As a service organisation, customer service and customer satisfaction should be the prime concern of any Bank. Providing prompt and efficient service is essential not only to attract new customers but also to retain the existing ones. This policy document aims at minimising instances of customer complaints and grievances through proper service delivery and review mechanism and to ensure prompt redressal of customer complaints and grievances. The review mechanism should help in identifying the shortcomings in product features and service delivery, as the customer dissatisfaction would tarnish bank's name and image.

6. Principles

- I. The bank's policy on grievance redressal follows the under noted principles:
 - Customers be treated fairly at all times.
 - Complaints made by customers are dealt promptly and with compassion.
 - Customers are fully informed of avenues to escalate their complaints/ grievances within the organisation and their rights to alternative remedy, if they are not fully satisfied with the response of the Bank to their complaints.
 - Bank will treat all complaints efficiently and fairly as they can damage the Bank's reputation and business if handled otherwise.
 - Bank employees must work in good faith and without prejudice to the interest of the customer.
- II. In order to make Bank's grievance redressal mechanism more meaningful and effective, a structured system has been built up towards such an end. Such system would ensure that the grievance of the customer is handled promptly and Bank would tell the customer how to escalate the complaint further if the Bank has not redressed the grievance to his/her satisfaction. The policy document would be made available at all branches. The employees at the Branches are aware of such a Complaint handling process.
- III. The customer complaint arises due to:
 - The attitudinal aspects of staff members in dealing with customers
 - Inadequacy of the functions/arrangements made available to the customers or gaps in standards of services expected and actual services rendered.
- IV. The customer is having the full right to register his complaint if he/she is not satisfied with the services provided by the bank. He/ She could lodge his/her complaint orally, in writing, through web portal, over telephone etc.
- V.
