- (i) a breach, non-performance or inadequate performance by the successful bidder of any of the terms, conditions, covenants, representations, undertakings, obligations or warranties under this tender or subsequent agreement;
- (ii) the acts, errors, representations, misrepresentations, willful misconduct or negligence of the successful bidder, its employees in performance of its obligations under this tender or any subsequent agreement; or
- (iii) any deficiency in the services of the Service Provider or
- (iv) violation of any applicable laws by the successful bidder, its agents, employees, representatives etc.

2. In the event of successful bidder not fulfilling its obligations under the clause within the period specified in the notice issued by the INDIAN BANK, bank has right to forfeit the security deposit or recover the amounts due to it under this provision from any amount payable to the vendor under this project.

3. The indemnities under this clause are in addition to and without prejudice to the indemnities given elsewhere in this tender document.

Conflict of Interest

- Indian Bank requires that bidder provide professional, objective, and impartial advice and at all times hold Indian Bank's interests paramount, strictly avoid conflicts with other Assignment(s)/ Job(s) or their own corporate interests and act without any expectations/ consideration for award of any future assignment(s) from Indian Bank.
- Without limitation on the generality of the foregoing, bidder, and any of their affiliates, shall be considered to have a conflict of interest and shall not be engaged, under any of the circumstances set forth below:
- A bidder (including its Personnel and Sub- Bidders) or any of its affiliates shall not be hired for any Assignment/ Job that, by its nature, may be in conflict with another Assignment/ Job of the Bidder / Personnel to be executed for the same and/or for another Entity / Employer during the currency of the assignment.
- A bidder (including its Personnel and Sub-Bidders) that has a material business or close family relationship with a member of Indian Bank's staff who is directly or indirectly involved in any part of (i) the preparation of the Terms of Reference of the Assignment/job, (ii) the selection process for such Assignment/job, or (iii) supervision of the Contract, shall not be awarded a Contract, unless the conflict stemming from this relationship has been resolved in a manner acceptable to Indian Bank throughout the selection process and the execution of the Contract. The respondent to tender is expected to provide complete details of Indian Bank staff associated with the Bidder in any manner whatsoever. In case the information is Nil, explicit mention should be made in this regard.
- Bidder have an obligation to disclose any situation of actual or potential conflict that impacts their capacity to serve the best interest of Indian Bank, or that may reasonably be perceived as having this effect. If the Bidder fails to disclose said situations and if Indian Bank comes to know about any such situation at any time, it may lead to the disqualification of the Bidder during bidding process or the termination of its Contract during execution of assignment.

Powers to Vary or Omit Work

- No suspensions of the work under the contract shall be made by the successful bidder except as directed in writing by the Bank. The Bank shall have full powers, subject to the provision herein after contained, from time to time during the execution of the contract, by notice in writing to instruct the successful bidder to make any variation without prejudice to the contract. The finally selected bidder shall carry out such variation and be bound by the same conditions as far as applicable as though the said variations occurred in the contract documents. If any suggested variations would, in the opinion of the finally selected bidders, if carried out, prevent him from fulfilling any of his obligations under the contract, he shall notify Bank thereof in writing with reasons for holding such opinion and Bank shall instruct the successful bidder to make such other modified variation without prejudice to the contract. The finally selected bidders shall carry out such variation and be bound by the same conditions as far as applicable as though the said variations occurred in the contract documents. If Bank confirms its instructions, the successful bidder's obligations shall be modified to such an extent as may be mutually agreed. If such variation is substantial and involves considerable extra cost, the agreed difference in cost occasioned by such variation shall be added to or deducted from the contract price as the case may be.
- In any case in which the successful bidder has received instructions from Bank as to the requirement of carrying out the altered or additional substituted work which either then or later on, will in the opinion of the finally selected bidders, involve a claim for additional payments, such additional payments shall be mutually agreed in line with the terms and conditions of the order.
- If any change in the work is likely to result in reduction in cost, the parties shall agree in writing so as to the extent of change in contract price, before the finally selected bidder(s) proceeds with the change. In all the above cases, in the event of a disagreement as to the reasonableness of the said sum, the decision of Bank shall prevail.

FORCE MAJEURE

- Any failure or delay by Bidder or Bank in performance of its obligation, to the extent due to any failure or delay caused by fire, flood, earthquake or similar elements of nature, or acts of God, war, terrorism, riots, civil disorders, rebellions or revolutions, acts of government authorities or other events beyond the reasonable control of non-performing. i.e. a Force Majeure event is not a default or a ground for termination.
- If Force Majeure event arises the Bidder shall promptly notify Bank in writing of such conditions and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise agreed by Indian Bank in writing, the Bidder shall continue to perform its obligations under the contract as far as is reasonably practical, and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the Force Majeure event.

Audit

- The Bank may, at its discretion, get the services & deliverables of the finally selected bidder inspected/ audited by its internal/ external inspectors/ auditors. The finally selected bidder shall facilitate the same.

- The selected bidder shall, whenever required, furnish all relevant information, records, and data to such auditors and / or inspecting officials of the Bank / Reserve Bank of India and or any regulatory authority / Bank's Bidder / Testing agency entrusted by the Bank to carry out this work.
- The Bank may, at its discretion carry out a pre inspection by a team of Bank officials or demand a demonstration of the services proposed on a representative model in Bidder's office as per specification provided by the Bank.
- The Bank at its discretion may carry out periodic inspection/quality checks on continual basis and where necessary may reject the products/solution which does not meet the specifications provided by the Bank.
- Nothing stated hereinabove shall in any way release the Bidder from any warranty or other obligations under this contract.

Termination of Contract

- The Bank alone shall have the right to terminate the contract with the selected bidder at any time during the contract period, by giving a written notice of at least one month, for any valid reason.
- The selected bidder shall not have right to terminate the contract or to demand any damages on account of termination of the Contract by the Bank.

Delays in the Bidder's performance in successful implementation of the project

Performance of the services shall be made by the Bidder in accordance with the time schedule and other terms & conditions as specified in the tender/Contract. Any delay in performing the obligation /defect in performance by the Bidder may result in imposition of liquidated damages, and/or termination of contract.

Termination for Default

- Indian Bank may, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, by written notice of default sent to the Bidder, terminate the contract in whole or part: if the Bidder fails to deliver any or all of the services within the period(s) specified in the Contract, pursuant to conditions of contract or if the Bidder fails to perform any other obligation(s) under the Contract.
- In the event Indian Bank terminates the Contract in whole or in part, Indian Bank may procure, upon such terms and in such manner, as it deems appropriate, systems or services similar to those not delivered by the Bidder and the Bidder shall be liable to Bank for any excess costs for such similar systems or services. However, the Bidder shall continue the performance of the contract to the extent not terminated.

Termination for Insolvency

Indian Bank may at any time terminate the Contract by giving written notice to the Bidder, if the Bidder becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent. The event of termination will be without compensation to the Bidder, provided that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy, which has occurred or will accrue thereafter to Indian Bank. Notwithstanding the above, the Indian Bank shall have the right to terminate the contract any time without assigning any reasons.

Governing Law and Disputes (Applicable in case of successful bidder only)

- All disputes or differences whatsoever arising between the parties out of or in connection with the contract or in discharge of any obligation arising out of the Contract (whether during or after completion of such work and whether before or after the termination of the contract, abandonment or breach of the contract), shall be settled amicably. If however, the parties are not able to solve them amicably, party (Indian Bank or Bidder), give written notice to other party clearly setting out there in specific dispute(s) and/or difference(s) and shall be referred to a sole arbitrator mutually agreed upon, and the award made in pursuance thereof shall be binding on the parties. In the absence of consensus about the single arbitrator, the dispute may be referred to a panel of three arbitrators; one to be nominated by each party and the said arbitrators shall nominate a presiding arbitrator, before commencing the arbitration proceedings. The arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the Laws of India. Any appeal will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of courts at Chennai.
- The Bidder shall continue work under the Contract during the arbitration proceedings unless otherwise directed by the Bank or unless the matter is such that the work cannot possibly be continued until the decision of the arbitrator is obtained. Arbitration proceeding shall be held at Chennai, and the language of the arbitration proceedings and that of all documents and communications between the parties shall be in English.

Governing language

The contract and all correspondence/ communications and other documents pertaining to the Contract, shall be written in English.

Governing Law

The contract shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of India.

Taxes and Duties

The Bidder shall be entirely responsible for all taxes, duties, license fees, road permits, other taxes, etc, incurred and therefore should be included in the price bid. The quote prices and taxes & statutory levies such as GST, Sales Tax and Octroi etc should be specified separately.

Services

- Bidder should ensure that the services of Bidder's key personnel with relevant skill are always available to the Bank.
- Bidder should ensure the quality and delivery of services and its adherence to standards.

VICARIOUS LIABILITY

The Vendor shall be the principal employer of the employees, agents, contractors, subcontractors, etc., if any, engaged by the vendor and shall be vicariously liable for all the acts, deeds, matters or things, whether the same is within the scope of power or outside the scope of power, vested under the contract. No right of any employment in the Bank shall accrue or arise, by virtue of engagement of employees, agents, contractors, subcontractors etc., by the vendor for any assignment under the contract. All remuneration, claims, wages dues etc., of such employees, agents, contractors, subcontractors etc. of the Vendor shall be paid by the Vendor alone and the Bank shall not have any direct or indirect liability or obligation, to pay any charges, claims or wages of any of the Vendor's employees, agents, contractors, subcontractors etc. The Vendor shall agree to hold the Bank, its successors, assigns and administrators fully indemnified, and harmless against loss or liability, claims, actions or proceedings, if any, whatsoever nature that may arise or caused to the Bank through the action of Vendor's employees, agents, contractors, subcontractors, etc.

PENALTY CLAUSE

- (i) Delay in providing cash van along with crew, within the stipulated period of 60 days from the date of issue of work order by the Bank, will attract penalty of 1% of cash van monthly charges per day subject to maximum of 25% of cash van monthly charges. However, the Bank may condone the liquidity damages for delay of less than a week.
- (ii) Not providing cash van on any day will attract penalty of 5% of cash van monthly charges per day. The penalty would be in addition to the deduction of pro-rata monthly charges.
- (iii) Not providing any crew member with cash van will attract penalty of 1% of cash van monthly charges per day per absent crew member.
- (iv) Absence of Armed Guards with the cash van would be treated as cash van not provided and penalty as per (ii) above would be levied. However, in exceptional cases, if such cash van is allowed by the branch, penalty as per (iii) above would be levied.

Bank reserves its right to recover these amounts by any mode such as adjusting from any payments to be made by the Bank to the service provider. The decision to further continue/ discontinue the contract with the service provider lies fully with the Bank.
